ANNOUNCEMENT
Tuesday
September 21th 2010

Topic: When Disaster Strikes... Seattle is Ready

Speaker: Kenneth Neafcy
Deputy Director, City of Seattle Police Dept.
Office of Emergency Management

This presentation will provide a background on how Seattle works both internally and regionally with partners on a number of plans, capabilities, and projects to better prepare for, mitigate, and respond to a disaster may have on our community. It will also cover plans dealing with how Seattle deals with building assessment following an earthquake and will offer ways in which SAME and the City of Seattle could work together to support each other following a disaster.
